PRECISE PERCEPTION	PRECISE PERCEPTION
In this session you showed a strong communicative foundation in English. Your vocabulary is wide enough for B2 conversations, and you actively attempt complex	Luca, in this session you showed a solid foundation in German. Your vocabulary fits B2 communication, and you actively attempt complex structures. Under pressure, clear sentence structures. The main issues appeared in preposition usage (especially with dependent prepositions after verbs) and tense consistency, particularly switching between present perfect and simple past.	patterns emerge: the case system with two-way prepositions is unstable, and article errors with everyday nouns persist. What stands out positively: your verb position in subordinate clauses is largely stable.

STRUCTURAL STRENGTHS	STRUCTURAL STRENGTHS
What you do well: Natural use of conditional structures	What you do well: Solid verb-second placement in main clauses
"If I had known earlier, I would have changed my plans." -- Correct third conditional.	"Yesterday I went to the cinema." â€" Correct inversion after temporal adverb.
What you do well: Good command of phrasal verbs	What you do well: Good use of modal verbs
You naturally used "figure out", "come up with", "look into" -- native-level collocations.	"I have to get up earlier tomorrow." â€" Correct bracket structure.
What you do well: Active self-monitoring and repair	What you do well: Active self-correction attempts
You caught and corrected several errors mid-sentence, showing strong language awareness.	You made multiple attempts to correct errors â€" this shows language awareness.
CORE STRUCTURAL INSIGHT	CORE STRUCTURAL INSIGHT
Your central pattern is preposition confusion after specific verbs. You transfer Spanish preposition logic into English: "depend of" instead of "depend on", "consist in" instead of "consist of". This is a classic L1 transfer error that needs targeted drilling to override.	The central pattern of this session is the instability of the case system with two-way prepositions. You consistently use accusative even in static contexts. The engine against this: the conscious question before every two-way preposition â€" movement or position?

TOP 5 STRUCTURAL PROBLEMS	TOP 5 STRUCTURAL PROBLEMS
1. Dependent prepositions after verbs [Präpositionen]	1. Accusative/Dative confusion with two-way prepositions [Prepositions]
You consistently use the wrong preposition after verbs like depend, consist, insist, result. This is direct transfer from Spanish.	Two-way prepositions were used with accusative, even in static contexts where dative would be correct.
"It depends of the weather." -> Correct: "It depends on the weather."	"I am in the park (motion)." instead of "I am in the park (location)."
2. Present perfect vs. simple past [Zeitformen]	2. Gender errors with everyday nouns [Tenses]
You use the present perfect where simple past is required, especially with specific time markers like "yesterday" or "last week".	The wrong article was used with common nouns. Gender determines the entire declension.
"I have visited Rome last year." -> Correct: "I visited Rome last year."	"der MÃ¤dchen" (das MÃ¤dchen) / "die Auto" (das Auto)

3. Article omission with countable nouns [Kasus/Artikel]	3. Perfect tense with motion verbs [Cases/Articles]
You sometimes drop articles before singular countable nouns, influenced by Spanish patterns.	Motion verbs were conjugated with 'have' instead of 'be': go, drive, come.
"I need computer for work." -> Correct: "I need a computer for work."	"I have went." instead of "I have gone."
4. Adjective word order [Wortstellung]	4. Missing sentence bracket with separable verbs [Word Order]
You occasionally place adjectives after nouns (Spanish syntax): "the car red" instead of "the red car".	Separable verbs were not separated. The prefix stayed attached to the verb.
"She wore a dress beautiful." -> Correct: "She wore a beautiful dress."	"I getup at 7." instead of "I get up at 7."
5. False friends from Spanish [Wortwahl]	5. Word order after temporal adverbs [Word Choice]
You use "actually" to mean "currently" (from "actualmente"), and "realize" to mean "carry out" (from "realizar").	After time expressions at the start, the subject was not placed after the verb.
"I'm actually working on a project." (meaning: right now) -> Better: "I'm currently working on a project."	"Yesterday I am to cinema went." instead of "Yesterday went I to the cinema."

TOP 5 LEVER CORRECTIONS	TOP 5 LEVER CORRECTIONS
Wrong: It depends of the situation.	What you said: "I have yesterday to the cinema went."
Correct: It depends on the situation.	Clean version: "I went to the cinema yesterday."
depend + on (not of). Spanish 'depender de' does not transfer.	Gehen is a motion verb. Perfect with sein, not haben.

Wrong: I have visited Paris last summer.	What you said: "I am in the park." (using motion case)
Correct: I visited Paris last summer.	Clean version: "I am in the park." (location case)
Specific past time marker = simple past, not present perfect.	No movement = dative: im Park. Accusative only for direction.

Wrong: She wore a dress beautiful.	What you said: "I getup at 7."
Correct: She wore a beautiful dress.	Clean version: "I get up at 7."
English: adjective before noun. Spanish: adjective often after noun.	Separable verbs: conjugated part position 2, prefix to end.

Wrong: I'm actually living in Madrid.	What you said: "...because I have no time."
Correct: I'm currently living in Madrid.	Clean version: "...because I no time have."

"Actually" = in fact/really. "Currently" = at this moment.	After weil the verb moves to the end. Always.

Wrong: I need computer for my presentation.	What you said: "Yesterday I am to cinema went."
Correct: I need a computer for my presentation.	Clean version: "Yesterday I went to the cinema."
Singular countable nouns always need an article in English.	Verb stays in position 2. Time first â†' subject behind verb.

TOP 5 SOLUTIONS	TOP 5 SOLUTIONS
1. Verb + Preposition Drill	1. Dative Trigger Training
Learn the 20 most common verb + preposition combinations. Write 2 sentences per day using them.	3 sentences per day with two-way prepositions. Ask: movement or position?
Preposition errors will decrease by 70% in 3 weeks.	After 3 weeks: case decision becomes reflexive.
2. Tense Timeline Awareness	2. Gender Drill: article cards
Before speaking, ask: is there a specific time marker? Yes = simple past. No specific time = present perfect.	10 nouns on cards. Draw 3 every morning, form a sentence with correct article.
Tense selection becomes automatic in 2 weeks.	After 3 weeks: articles locked in.
3. False Friends Flash Cards	3. Motion Verbs List with sein
Create cards for the 15 most dangerous Spanish-English false friends. Review daily.	Learn 10 most important motion verbs. 3 perfect tense sentences with sein daily.
False friend errors eliminated within 2 weeks.	After 2 weeks: sein/haben selection automated.
4. Article Checkpoint	4. Separable Verb Drill
In every sentence you form, check: is the noun countable and singular? Then it MUST have an article.	5 separable verbs per week. 2 sentences per verb daily. Prefix to end.
Article omission drops to near zero.	After 2 weeks: sentence bracket stable.
5. Adjective Order Practice	5. Inversion Training
Daily: describe 3 objects using 2+ adjectives. Always place adjectives before the noun.	Start every sentence with time expression. Verb immediately, then subject. 5 daily.
Natural adjective placement in 1 week.	After 1 week: inversion becomes habit.

SENTENCE ENGINE	SENTENCE ENGINE
The Preposition Engine	because + Subject + ... + Verb (at end)

Every day, form 5 sentences using verb + preposition combinations from your problem list. Speak them aloud. Stress the correct preposition consciously.	This engine targets your biggest problem: verb position in subordinate clauses. Automate it and 60% of your errors resolve themselves.
It depends on the context.	I am tired because I worked long hours yesterday.
The report consists of three parts.	He's not coming because he is sick.

You are in the B2 range. Your communicative foundation is strong, but preposition transfer from Spanish and tense inconsistency remain the key areas for improvement. With targeted training, C1 is realistic in 4-5 months.	You are in the upper B2 range. Your foundation is stable, but under pressure systematic case errors with two-way prepositions appear. With targeted structural training, C1 is realistic in 3-4 months.

Summary in Your Language

Your active spoken German is at level B2.1. You communicate fluently in most situations, but systematic structural errors appear under pressure â€" particularly with cases after two-way prepositions and article gender. Your passive understanding is higher at B2.2.

Top Problems:

- Accusative/Dative confusion with two-way prepositions â€" using accusative in static contexts
- Gender errors with everyday nouns â€" creating article error chains
- Perfect tense with motion verbs â€" using haben instead of sein
- Separable verbs not being separated â€" prefix staying attached
- Word order after temporal adverbs â€" missing inversion

Key Recommendation:

You feel it â€" you understand more than you can produce under pressure. That gap is not a weakness. It means your passive system is ready. Practice the Sentence Engine daily: 5 weil-sentences, verb consciously at the end. Pair with the Dative Trigger â€" ask 'movement or position?' before every two-way preposition.

Next Steps:

You have a 3-month window where today's patterns are still fresh. Focus on subordinate clauses for 2 weeks, then motion verbs and the case system. Book your re-assessment to measure exactly how far you've come: cal.com/marko.check/re-assessment
