Under pressure, clear patterns emerged: dependent prepositions transfer from your native language, and tense selection between present perfect and simple past is inconsistent. Positively: your use of conditionals and phrasal verbs is natural.
Structural Strengths What you do well: Natural use of conditional structures "If I had known earlier, I would have changed my plans." — Correct third conditional. What you do well: Good command of phrasal verbs You naturally used "figure out", "come up with", "look into" — native-level collocations. What you do well: Active self-monitoring and repair You caught and corrected several errors mid-sentence, showing strong language awareness. Summary in Your Language

Your active spoken English is at level B2.1. Your passive understanding is B2.2.

Top Problems:

- Dependent prepositions after verbs
- Present perfect vs. simple past
- Article omission with countable nouns
- Adjective word order
- False friends from native language

Key Recommendation:

You feel it — you understand more than you can produce under pressure. That gap is not a weakness. Practice the Sentence Engine daily. This single drill will close the biggest gap.

Next Steps:

Focus on the first drill for 2 weeks, then expand. Book your re-assessment in 3 months: cal.com/marko.check/re-assessment
